Dear Brady:

I hardly know how to begin this letter. I am so tired fussing with you, and I know you are tired hearing me, but you are still being as careless as ever. You sent me a letter with dates listed that you could arrange for The Eagles and The Stars to play in Virginia, and when the dates were checked in the blue book, we find the parks were not available on all the dates you listed. You said we could be in Norfolk Aug. 1st, and we found Norfolk is home that day.

However we went over the schedule, and decided we would come to Virginia for the following dates, under one condition; that is if you do not have any other baseball there that week, and if you do not have any the week before. I told you this on the phone, but I am repeating it now, so you can let me know by return mail.

The dates we can come will be;

July 30th Norfolk
31st Newport News
Aug. 1st Portsmouth

We will play in Richmond on our way down the 29th, but I will write Joe Miles directly about the game.

Frankly Brady everyone is disgusted with the way you have handled that good Virginia territory. If you take care of these games properly, maybe the teams will regain a little of the confidence they have lost in you. One of the big mistakes you have made is to have all the little "outlaw" teams advertised as our baseball, and in the neighborhood at the same time we were, and just before us.

I will be looking to hear from you right away.

Very Truly Yours
